Approval Notice
Class: H1B
Valid from 11/05/92 to 11/04/95
Consulate: LONDON

Notice also sent to:
IRS

The above petition has been approved. It is valid for the period shown above. We have sent a cable to the consulate listed above to notify them of the approval of the petition.

This completes all INS action on this petition. If you have any questions about visa issuance, please contact the consulate directly.

Approval of this petition in itself does not authorize the employment of the named worker(s). If a visa is issued, upon admission in this classification the workers will be authorized to be employed by the petitioner for the authorized period pursuant to the terms and conditions of the petition. This notice, and a copy of the Form I-94, Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Document, for each worker, should be kept by the petitioner for record purposes to demonstrate that the employment of each of the workers included in this petition is authorized.

If plans change, and the person(s) this petition is for will apply for a visa at a consulate other than that listed above, the petitioner should file Form I-824, Application for Further Action on an Approved Application or Petition, with this office if you wish us to notify the new consulate. If the worker(s) have entered the U.S. in the interim, and now seek to change status to this new classification, file a new Form I-129 petition with a copy of this notice.

Please read the back of this form carefully for more information. If you have questions concerning tax withholding, contact the Internal Revenue Service.

If any of the worker(s) included in this petition do not actually enter the United States, and substitutions of different workers are not made, the petitioner must notify this office so the allocated nonimmigrant visa numbers can be re-used.

You will be notified separately about any other applications or petitions you filed. Save this notice. Please enclose a copy of it if you write to us about this case, or if you file another application based on this decision. Our address is:
