Good Morning Chris and Irina,

I'm reaching out in Amanda Kirby's absence. Jeffrey Epstein's Power of Attorney (Darren Indyke) has reached out to me to request a cash withdrawal of $40k from a/c [REDACTED].

Margaux and I have been told by the banking team that the daily max. that someone other than the account holder can withdraw is $7,500. To be clear, the client's POA wants to walk into the branch and walk out with $40k cash.

With that said - is it possible to make an exception to this rule? Paul Morris (Private Banker) has covered this client for years, and the client has > $200mm in assets with DB (between deposits and brokerage).

Would appreciate if you could please let us know.

Thank you,
Vahe
