The Common Shares have not been registered under the Securities Act or any state securities laws and may not be offered or sold except in transactions exempt from, or not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws, unless registered under the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. The Common Shares will constitute "restricted securities" within the meaning of Rule 144 under the Securities Act. Prospective investors are limited to "accredited investors," as such term is defined under Rule 501(a) of Regulation D under the Securities Act, that are either (i) "qualified purchasers," as defined in Section 2(a)(51)(A) of the U.S. Investment Company Act of 1940, as amended (the "Investment Company Act"), and the rules promulgated thereunder or (ii) employees of BlackRock Financial Management, Inc. or its affiliates who are Knowledgeable Employees. Certain offers and sales may also be made to persons who are both (A) "qualified purchasers," as such term is defined in Section 2(a)(51)(A) of the Investment Company Act, and (B) "non-U.S. persons," as such term is defined under Regulation S of the Securities Act, in "offshore transactions," as such term is defined under Regulation S of the Securities Act. The Placement Memorandum does not comply in important respects with the rules of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (the "SEC") that would apply to an offering document relating to a public offering of securities. As used herein, "Knowledgeable Employee" means any natural person who is an executive officer, director, trustee, general partner, advisory board member or person serving in a similar capacity of ABR Holdings or an entity that manages the investment activities of ABR Holdings, as well as an employee of ABR Holdings or such an entity that manages the investment activities of ABR Holdings who, in connection with such employee's regular functions, participates in the investment activities of ABR Holdings and/or other private investment funds the investment activities of which are managed by such entity that manages the investment activities of ABR Holdings; provided that such employee has been performing such functions for or on behalf of ABR Holdings or such entity that manages the investment activities of ABR Holdings, or substantially similar functions for or on behalf of another investment management firm, for at least 12 months.
