

continued coverage of the GA family office group, Mark and Kirsten will still see KCP deals through that channel. Our short term objective, then, is to transition the relationship to ISG and generate more consistent engagement. The clients seem generally happy with JPM, so we will need to work hard to win business away from them.

Confidential