

FIMI's Rivulis adds on Eurodrip

Industrial Supplies | Maroussi, Greece | Bolt-on

Irrigation equipment manufacturers Rivulis Irrigation and Eurodrip have agreed to merge, with the new company retaining the Rivulis name and Rivulis CEO Richard Klapholz. The combined business will operate 18 factories across five continents. FIMI Opportunity Funds, which has backed Rivulis since 2014, and Paine & Partners, which has owned Eurodrip since 2013, will remain shareholders and active on the company's board.

View details

View 23 comparables »

TA backs think project

Vertical Market Software | Munich, Germany | PE Growth

TA Associates has invested in think project!, the provider of a cross-enterprise workflow platform for the construction and engineering industries. The company operates multiple locations in Germany and regional sales offices in Spain, Poland, Austria, the Netherlands and France.

Advisors:

GCA Altium (financial), Noerr (legal), Willkie Farr & Gallagher (legal)

View details

View 213 comparables »

Omnes raises €210M for latest vehicle

Paris, France | Buyout

Omnes Capital has closed Omnes Croissance 4 on €210 million, exceeding its €180 million target, according to Unquote. The fund has already backed cable network services provider Capcom with a €9.5 million investment in 2015.

View details

View 337 investments »

IPEM is in the Air