Subject: REMINDER Expiring Standing Instructions for October 2018 [I]

Classification: For internal use only

Hi Team,

Due to a system limitation, standing instructions in DB Force expire. As such, please be advised that the below standing instruction will be expiring in the coming month of October 2018. If this instruction needs to continue, please put up a Customer Research TEAS ticket, referencing the existing Standing Instruction number. Please also attach the letter of instruction used to set up the original standing instruction. You do not need to obtain a new instruction from your client.

Please note the account was closed dtd -3/24/2016

If you do not put up a ticket to extend this standing instruction, it will no longer be valid and any TEAS case referencing it will be rejected.
