Dear Sir or Madam,

Client communication: German Deposit Guarantee Scheme

The recast Deposit Guarantee Scheme Directive requires credit institutions to inform depositors of the statutory deposit guarantee scheme which applies to such institution and its branches.

This letter is to inform you that the eligible deposits of your clients listed below, are protected under the German Deposit Guarantee Act (Einlagensicherungsgesetz).

- (List Fund Here)
- (Etc.)

Attached to this letter you will find the depositor guarantee information sheet which must be signed to confirm your clients' understanding of the deposit guarantee scheme. You can also obtain an electronic copy of this sheet in multiple languages from www.db.com/fk/de/produkte/informationen-fuer-den-einleger-depositor-information.htm

Please return a scan of the signed Deposit Information Sheet to [REDACTED] by Friday 16th December 2016.

Alternatively, please use the following postal address:

Attn: Client Outreach - Mailstop 3005
DBOI Global Services (UK) Limited
5 Brindley Place
Birmingham
B1 2JB
United Kingdom

Please note that qualifying deposits are subject to eligibility criteria. Further details can be found at <http://www.edb-banken.de/en>

For anything else, please contact your relationship manager.

Yours Sincerely,

Deutsche Bank AG
London Branch

Comment [CW1]: I have changed this sentence to refer to "eligible deposits", so the sentence itself is caveated, and limited in scope to deposits that meet the eligibility threshold

Comment [g2]: Please confirm the format of the information sheet. Please confirm we are following the format outlined in the regulation.
