

not considered eligible investors and are not entitled to participate in the ARS buyback under the terms of the settlement.

Merrill Lynch's control affiliate BAS entered into similar consent orders with state securities regulators.