

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

No manager of the Company shall be liable to the Company or its members for monetary damages for an act or an omission in such manager's capacity as a member, except for liability of a manager for (i) a breach of a manager's duty of loyalty to the Company or its members, (ii) an act or omission, not in good faith, that constitutes a breach of duty of a manager to the Company or an act or omission that involves intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of the law, (iii) a transaction from which a manager received an improper benefit, whether or not the benefit resulted from an action taken within the scope of the manager's position, or (iv) an act or omission for which the liability of a manager is expressly provided for by an applicable statute. If the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act or other applicable law is amended to authorize action further eliminating or limiting the liability of managers, then the liability of any manager of the Company shall be eliminated or limited to the fullest extent permitted by the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act or other applicable law, as so amended.

Any repeal or modification of the foregoing paragraph by the members shall not adversely affect any right or protection of any manager existing at the time of such repeal or modification.

MEMBER LIABILITY

No member of the Company shall be liable for the debts and obligations of the Company under Section 1303, Subsection (c) of the Uniform Limited Liability Company Act.

SEVERABILITY

If any phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, or provision of these Articles of Organization is held to be void or illegal, then it shall not impair or affect the balance of these Articles, and the undersigned Organizer of the Company does hereby declare that she would have signed and executed the balance of these Articles without such void or illegal provisions.
