

- Inform new customers (for accounts opened post July 2015) about their participation in the deposit guarantee scheme (DGS) before opening their first account by distributing the “Depositor Information Sheet”, attached, which the customer must sign and return.
 - This will need to be managed by the Relationship Manager and his/her team during the onboarding process

- Inform existing customers (for accounts opened pre July 2015) , via their account statements and/or a Depositor Information Sheet, attached, about the fact that their deposits are covered. No acknowledgement is required.
 - Marketing will coordinate a central mailing

- Inform existing customers, on an annual basis, about DGS by distributing the Depositor Information Sheet. No acknowledgement is required.
 - This will be conducted centrally

Please note that this applies ONLY to DBAG NY and Cayman Branch accounts—this does not impact DBTCA accounts.

This information will be posted to our mydb page.

All of your DBAG NY and Cayman accounts will be impacted; however, if you would like a list of your affected clients, please reach out to your Anna-Sofiya.

If you have any questions, please let me know.

Janet & Sylvia; Please forward to your teams, and let them know who they may get their lists of affected clients from.

Best,
Armen
