Looks like he has a little over $50mm in money markets in the brokerage accounts. Would be good to get that moved into AG. Let's give Rich a summary of all of those cash/MM balances so he can focus on it.

Thanks

Stew – following up on the below. What ended up happening with Epstein and the new deposit accounts? Last time we spoke to Rich together about the matter he committed to moving the deposits to DB NY – but it looks like the cash is still in brokerage accounts.

Let me know if I can be helpful on this front.

Thank you,
Vahe

Let's discuss what to show these guys to get them to move cash to the most efficient place for them and us

Thanks

Attached is the spreadsheet of all accounts including account type, current (cash only) balances as of today, and interest rates. I've added a column for notes to distinguish the cash within the brokerage accounts. Let me know if you need anything else 😊

Kind regards,
