

- (a) The majority of the Guarantor settlement assets relate to the Company's merchant acquiring business. The Company believes the settlement assets are not available to satisfy any claims other than those related to the settlement liabilities.