

Hoffenberg was called "unstable" and "manic" by the judge that sentenced him. He repeatedly filed lawsuits against the government from jail and against other people (including his lawyers), all of which were dismissed.

He convinced the plaintiffs to file this suit as a class action. That way Hoffenberg wouldn't be the plaintiff himself.

The original matter here was thoroughly investigated by the SEC and others and Hoffenberg was the only person deemed to have been involved.

If you Google Hoffenberg, it's easy to find the full history here. I think we should accept this matter as closed on our side.

Thanks
