Hi Terri,

Thank you for a detailed response to Thomas.

I have shared this email with Vijay so he tracks this update.

Have a great weekend!!!

Kind regards,

Subject: Update : Case management on High Risk accounts [I]

Thomas,

Below please find an update on the pending high risk completions. My recommendation to process more quickly through the cases would be to request the following two exceptions from Compliance/KYC:

- Certificate of Good Standing - COGS should be required every 12-15 months. Requesting this certificate every six months is (1) costly to the client; (2) annoying; and (3) time consuming. What is the rationale behind the 6 month request and how was that period of time chosen for this certification;
- FinCen - Once we provide evidence of requesting the FinCen form from the client, we should move the KYC to the next stage with a 60 day grace period to obtain them.

Updates in red below.

Hi Terri,

Trust you are doing well.

We were in a meeting with Thomas today. I thank you for sharing your feedback on Vijay.

The team is currently focusing on all High Risk cases due 2018 and have been instructed to complete all high risk cases due for the rest of the year.

Overview for your list of clients:

· Total High Risk Cases due 2018:	91
· Work in progress:		52*
· Cases yet to be started:	27

*52 cases – this is a mix of KYC's where we are awaiting information and rejected cases.

Considering volumes and to be able to meet targeted dates, I have reallocated these cases amongst other case managers within the team.

Along with Vijay these cases are now reassigned between 5 more Case managers ( Alka, Mayur, Krupa, Priyanka and Lezal). They will be working closely with Vijay and will be reaching out for case reviews.

We thank you for your partnership and look forward to your support to complete these KYC's. Please feel free to reach out for any clarifications and information.

Have a great day!!!

Kind regards,
