Can you guys have a look and let me know what needs to be done here? I didn't know we had any accounts with Epstein that had transaction limits. With the exiting of the relationship there is clearly increased activity. Thanks.

Hello Stewart,

Please be advised that the below listed money market account has exceeded the allowed number of transactions on Date (03/29/2019). You are receiving this email because you are the banking officer on this account. Letter to the client will be sent out on (04/04/2019) notifying them of the violation. If it is the third violation, the account must be converted to a transactional account (i.e., DDA or NOW) within 10 days from the date of the final notice. In the event a subsequent transaction is posted to the non-transactional account post 3rd violation, during the 10 day grace period, the funds must be transferred to a transactional account immediately.

If you think your client's violation is due to a bank error, please respond to both myself and Ryan Neumann in Compliance with your reason and it will be reviewed. If we do not receive a response in next two business day, we will assume you are not disputing this violation and letters will be sent according to Federal Regulations.

Acc # [REDACTED] - Southern Trust Company, 1st violation

Please advise your client about the Regulation D requirement allowing only 6 transactions per month.
