Todd,

Initial approval should come from the immediate supervisor (9/10 or 24)of the person preparing the marketing piece.

If someone is putting together a customer presentation with factual market data, as long as

Source is identified (Bloomberg/Thompson) then it should take minutes for the supervisor & MRG to approve.

ZIgggy,

Why don't you get your back-up RA (Brian) to assist on these items???

Lets talk tomorrow.

Thank you

We are trying to amend the process to (1) go to MRG first and then (2) go to Ziggy only if presentation contains account specific information (balances, etc). If purely factual market information then the MRG should be sufficient.

Zia will need to opine and advise how we can amend process.

Guys,

Are we doing business with Epstein?

This is a KCP client, why is ISG involved with the client?

Thanks

Subject: Approval Needed - List of Preferreds

Ziggy,

I've attached a list of preferred equities that was asked for by Richard Kahn; the CFO for Southern Financial, which is an investment entity for the personal wealth of Jeffrey Epstein (one of Stew Oldfield's clients).

The list isn't a recommendation. Instead, it is a list of commonly traded preferred equities, which Richard and Jeffrey can select from to build their own basket.

The original list was provided by Delores Rubin from STG. ISG added the preferred equity CUSIPS, the average daily volume, the Bloomberg consensus rating for the issuers' common equity, and the DB rating for the issuers' common equity columns. Bloomberg was the source of the non DB information.

We'd like to send on Monday afternoon at the latest. Please let us know what disclosures would be required for approval.

Thanks in advance.

Best regards,
Andrew King
