Applicable Account No(5)

AUTHORIZATION OF POWER OF ATTORNEY

For Natural/Individual Persons For Brokerage Accounts and/or retirement accounts with DBSI

77J/S Authorization/Power

of Attorney constitutes a non-durable limited power of attorney, designed to give a person or persons designated by you either (1) limited authority over your Account(s) or (2) full authority over your Account(s) as set forth below.

NOTE; UNDER NEW YORK LAW, THE FOLLOWING DISCLOSURE IS REQUIRED TO BE INCLUDED, VERBATIM, IN EVERY POWER OF ATTORNEY.

CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important document. As the "Principal," you give the person whom you choose (your "agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority. When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, when there are no specific instructions, in your best interest.

"Important Information for the Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public.

You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney by executing this Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to the financial institutions where your accounts are located. You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly. Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you.

You may execute a "Health Care Proxy" to do this. The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.senate.state.ny.us or www.assembly.state.ny.us.

If there is anything in this document that you do not understand, you should consult with your lawyer.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION FOR THE AGENT(S):

When you accept the authority granted under this Authorization/Power of Attorney, a special legal relationship is created between you and the Principal. This relationship imposes on you legal responsibilities that continue until you resign or the Authorization/Power of Attorney is terminated or revoked. You must:

1. act according to any instructions from the Principal, or, where there are no instructions, in the Principal's best interest;
2. avoid conflicts that would impair your ability to act in the Principal's best interest;
3. keep the Principal's property separate and distinct from any assets you own or control, unless otherwise permitted by law;
4. keep a record of all receipts, payments, and transactions conducted for the Principal;
5. disclose your identity as an Agent whenever you act for the Principal by writing or printing the Principal's name and signing your own name as "Agent" in either of the following manner: (Principal's Name) by (Your Signature) as Agent, or (Your Signature) as Agent for (Principal's Name); and
6. agree that DBSI shall not be obligated to proceed with instructions that are inconsistent with the terms of any agreements governing the Account(s) or that would violate any applicable laws, rules or regulations.

You may not use the Principal's assets to benefit yourself or give major gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the Principal has specifically granted you that authority in this Authorization/Power of Attorney and in a Statutory Major Gifts Rider which the Principal may attach to this Authorization/Power of Attorney. If you have that authority, you must act according to any instructions of the Principal or, where there are no such Instructions, in the Principal's best Interest. You may resign by giving written notice to the Principal and to any co-agent, successor agent, or the Principal's guardian if one has been appointed. If there is anything about this document or your responsibilities that you do not understand, you should seek legal advice.

Liability of Agent; The meaning of authority given to you is defined in New York's General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. If it is found that you have violated the law or acted outside the authority granted to you in the Authorization/Power of Attorney, you may be liable under the law for your violation.

AGENT(S)' SIGNATURE AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF APPOINTMENT

It is not required that the Principal and the Agent(s) sign at the same time, nor that multiple Agents sign at the same time.

Good Morning Zia,

Hope you had a great weekend.

' Just wanted to follow up on an email that was sent over by Fran Wickman (pis. see below).

As you may know, we are in the process of onboarding a new client, Jeffrey Epstein, who has already transferred in $120mm-H liquid across his accounts.

A few items that we're requesting exceptions for:

- 1) Using DB POA for entity accounts (per Fran, POA is meant for natural persons accts.) - Client would like his assistants to have FULL POA over accts. Cannot use LTA in this situation.
- 2) Approval of Full POA for professional relationship (to agent) - requires BSO Approval
- 3) The signatures were notarized by one the Agents being appointed power of attorney - Client's assistant is notary. Assistant is NOT notarizing his own signature, just Jeanne's (other assistant).

I've CC'ed Fran here who can correct if I've misstated or left anything off. Please let me know if you have any questions.

We're meeting with the client tomorrow morning, so we would appreciate if you could please review at some point today.

Thanks in advance for your help,

Vahe
