

Hope all is well. My name is Matt Pryde and I'm a senior finance major at Penn State. Your contact information was given to me by Robin Stevens. I recently completed a summer internship with Goldman Sachs within their Private Wealth Management division. Although it was a great experience, my office did not hire any new full time analysts. I am now searching for other opportunities and I am interested in learning more about Deutsche Bank's recruiting process and time frame.

Thank you.

Best,
MattPryde
