This is the account agreement (Account Agreement) between Client and Deutsche Bank Securities Inc. (referred to herein as "DBSI"). It includes the terms and conditions and is the contract that controls each brokerage account in which Client has an interest (each an "Account"). Client agrees to read this Account Agreement and the Appendix to this Account Agreement: Disclosures and Definitions ("Appendix") carefully. If Client is not willing to be bound by these terms and conditions, Client should not sign this Account Agreement. Client's signature confirms that Client has read and agrees to the terms of this Account Agreement and the Appendix annexed hereto.

I. CLIENT REPRESENTATIONS

Client certifies that all of the information provided by Client in this Account Agreement is accurate and complete and that each of the following statements is accurate as to Client and Client's Account:

- a. Where Client is a natural person. Client is of legal age;
- b. For all accounts: (a) no one except the person(s) named on the Account(s), or, if signed in a representative capacity, then no one except the beneficial owner(s). has any interest in the Account(s), (b) Client is and will remain compliant with all Applicable Laws, (c) Client is financially capable of satisfying any obligations undertaken through Client's Account(s), (d) Client acknowledges that the purchase and sale of securities entails substantial economic risk, and represents knowingly and willingly that Client can assume such risk and (e) Client has read and understands the terms set forth in this Account Agreement and those agreements or supplements incorporated by reference and understands that Client is bound by such terms;
- c. Client agrees to notify us in writing if: (a) Client is or becomes an employee, member or immediate family member of any securities exchange (or corporation of which any exchange owns a majority of the capital stock).

Financial Industry Regulatory Authority, Inc. (FINRA) prior of any broker-dealer, (b) Client is or becomes a senior officer or immediate family member of such a person of any bank, savings and loan institution, insurance company, investment company, investment advisory firm or institution that purchases securities, or other employer whose consent is required to open and maintain this Account by regulation or otherwise, unless such consent has been provided to DBSI. Client will promptly notify DBSI in writing if any of the above circumstances change.

II. TERMS AND CONDITIONS THAT APPLY TO CLIENTS ACCOUNT(S)

The following terms and conditions govern Client's Account(s):

1. Rights of DBSI. All rights granted to DBSI under this Account Agreement are granted with the understanding that it shall be within the sole discretion of DBSI whether, and in what manner, to exercise such rights. The failure of DBSI to exercise any right granted under this Account Agreement shall not be deemed a waiver of such right or any other right granted hereunder. DBSI retains the right to delegate to its agent, including its clearing agent, Pershing LLC (Pershing), one or more of DBSI's rights or obligations under this Agreement without notice to Client.
2. Cash Account. DBSI will classify each Account as a cash brokerage account. DBSI must separately approve the opening of a margin account (Margin Account) and Client must separately sign the IV Margin Agreement.
3. Order Execution. Orders for the purchase or sale of assets may be routed to or executed through any exchange, market or broker that DBSI selects.
4. Rules and Regulations. All transactions in Account(s) shall be conducted in accordance with and subject to Applicable Law.

IIIIIIIIIIIIIIII
D2

5. Purchase of Securities. DBSI requires that cash accounts contain sufficient funds to settle a transaction, but has the right to accept an order without sufficient funds with the understanding that Client will submit payment on or before settlement date for each security purchased. DBSI retains the right to cancel or liquidate any order accepted and/or executed without prior notice to Client, if DBSI does not receive payment by settlement date. Alternatively, upon Client's failure to pay for purchased and settled securities, DBSI has the right to sell Securities and Other Property held in any of Client's Account(s) and charge to Client any loss resulting therefrom.

6. Sale of Securities. Client agrees that in a cash account: (a) Client will not sell any Security until it is paid for, (b) Client will own each security sold at the time of sale, (c) unless such security is already held in the Account, Client will promptly deliver such security thereto on or before settlement date, (d) Client will promptly make full cash payment of any amount which may become due in order to meet necessary requests for additional deposits and (e) with respect to any Securities and Other Property sold, Client will satisfy any mark to the market deficiencies. Client must affect all Short Sales in a margin account and designate these sales as "short." All other sales will be designated as "long" and will be deemed to be owned by Client. In the event that DBSI enters an order to sell Securities and Other Property that Client represents Client owns, but which are not held in the Account at the time of sale, and Client fails to make delivery by settlement date, DBSI has the right to purchase or borrow any Securities and Other Property necessary to make the required delivery. Client agrees to indemnify DBSI for any loss or cost including interest, commission or fees sustained as a result of the foregoing. DBSI charges interest on unpaid balances in cash accounts from the close of business on settlement date. See the Annual Disclosure Statement at <http://www.pwm.db.com/atnarcas/en/annualdisclosurestatement.html> for additional information on interest charges.

7. Restrictions on Trading. DBSI has the right to prohibit or restrict Client's ability to trade Securities and Other Property, or to substitute securities in Client's Account.

8. Restricted Securities. Client will not buy, sell or pledge any Restricted Securities without DBSI's prior written approval. Prior to placing any order for Restricted Securities subject to Rule 144 or 145 of the Securities Act of 1933, Client must identify the status of the securities and furnish DBSI with the necessary documents (including opinions of legal counsel, if requested) to obtain approval to transfer and register these securities. DBSI will not be liable for any delays in the processing of these securities or for any losses caused by these delays. DBSI has the right to decline to accept an order for these securities until the transfer and registration of such securities has been approved.

9. Order Placement and Cancellation/Modification Requests. When Client verbally places a trade with a Client Advisor, Client will be bound to the oral confirmation repeated back to Client, unless Client objects at the time of the order. Client understands that requests to cancel/modify an order that DBSI accepts are on a best efforts basis only.

10. Aggregation of Orders and Average Price. Client authorizes DBSI to aggregate orders for Client Account(s) with other orders. Client recognizes that in so doing, Client may receive an average price for orders that may differ from the price(s) Client may have received had the orders not been aggregated. Client understands that this practice may also result in orders being only partially completed.

11. Transmission of Instructions. Client understands and accepts responsibility for the transmission of instructions to DBSI and will bear the risk of loss arising from the method of transmission used in the event of transmission errors, misunderstandings, impersonations, transmission by unauthorized persons, forgery or intercepts. Except in the case of gross negligence, Client agrees to release and indemnify DBSI, its affiliates, employees and directors from any and all liability arising from the execution of transactions based on such instructions.

12. Role of Certain Third Parties. DBSI engages a third-party clearing agent Pershing. Client understands that Pershing is the custodian of Client's assets, clears and settles all transactions, and extends credit on any margin purchases, where applicable. Client further understands that Pershing may accept from DBSI, without inquiry or investigation: (i) orders for the purchase or sale of Securities and Other Property on margin or otherwise, and (ii) any other instructions concerning Account(s). Client further understands that the contract between DBSI and Pershing, and the services rendered thereunder, are not intended to create a joint venture, partnership or other form of business organization of any kind. Pershing shall not be responsible or liable to Client for any acts or omissions of DBSI or its employees. Pershing does not provide investment advice, nor offer any opinion on the suitability of any transaction or order. DBSI is not acting as the agent of Pershing. Client cannot hold Pershing, its affiliates and its officers, directors and agents liable for any trading losses that Client incurs.

13. Liens. Client hereby grants to DBSI and its Affiliates a security interest in and lien upon all Securities and Other Property in the possession or control of DBSI, any of its Affiliates or Pershing, in which Client has an Interest (held individually, jointly or otherwise) (collectively all such Securities and Other Property are referred to herein as "Collateral") in order to secure any and all indebtedness or any other obligation of Client to DBSI and Its Affiliates or Pershing (collectively, all such obligations are referred to herein as the "Obligations"). Clients who are joint accountholders (Joint Accountholders) acknowledge and agree that pursuant to the lien to DBSI and Affiliates, the Collateral shall include Securities and Other Property held in the Account or any other account held by either Joint Accountholder with DBSI or its Affiliates or Pershing (whether individually, jointly or otherwise) and shall secure any and all Obligations of each Joint Accountholder to DBSI and its Affiliates or Pershing. With respect to the lien granted to DBSI and Its Affiliates, DBSI (or Pershing, at DBSI's instruction) may, at any time and without prior notice, sell, transfer, release, exchange, settle or otherwise dispose of or deal with any or all such Collateral in order to satisfy any Obligations. In enforcing this lien, DBSI shall have the discretion to determine what and how much Collateral to apply for the purposes of the foregoing. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing herein shall be deemed to grant an interest in any Account or assets that would give rise to a prohibited transaction under Section 4975(c)(1) (B) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or Section 406(a)(1)-(B) of the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, as amended. Securities and Other Property held in Client's retirement account(s) maintained by DBSI, which may include IRAs or qualified plans, are not subject to this lien and such Securities and Other Property may only be used to satisfy Client's indebtedness or other obligations related to Client's retirement account(s).

14. Satisfaction of Indebtedness and Assignment of Rights. Client agrees to satisfy, upon demand, any indebtedness, including any interest and commission charges and to pay the reasonable costs and expenses of collection of any amount Client owes to DBSI, including reasonable attorneys' fees and court costs. Client agrees that DBSI or Pershing may execute or assign to each other or any third party any rights or obligations Client granted under this Account Agreement including but not limited to the right to collect any Obligations, or liquidate any Securities and Other Property held in Account(s).

15. Fees. Client understands that DBSI charges on Annual Account Fee for certain amounts and may charge service fees, processing fees and/or other fees or commissions. for the transaction and other services provided, more fully described in the Annual Disclosure Statement, at <http://www.pwnri.db.com/americas/en/annualdisclosurestatement.html>.

Client understands that these fees will be charged to Account(s) and authorizes DBSI to deduct such fees from Client's Account(s).

16. No FDIC Insurance, Not Obligations of Any Bank. Client understands that the assets in Client's Account are subject to the risk of partial or total loss due to market fluctuations or the insolvency of the issuer(s). The assets in Client's Account (including all related cash balances and shares of any Mutual Fund) are not deposits or other obligations of DBSI, Deutsche Bank AG, Pershing or any other bank, are not guaranteed by DBSI, Deutsche Bank AG, Administrator, Back or any other bank, and are not insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC).

Monies held in the Insured Deposit Program (IDP) may be FDIC insured while those monies are held in a depository account at a participating bank as described in the IDP Terms and Conditions. Client may from time to time be offered investment products for which DBSI or Deutsche Bank AG is an obligor. These products may be complex, may not provide for the return of the full amount of principal invested or for the payment of a fixed rate of interest (or any interest) and will not usually be covered by FDIC insurance, unless otherwise disclosed in the written offering documents for such products:

17. Cash Sweep Selection. Client agrees to contact DBSI regarding the selection of Cash Sweep Options and understands that Client's choice of Cash Sweep Options may be limited to money market mutual funds or deposit products that are unaffiliated with DBSI if Client's Account is an individual retirement account or an ERISA account or if DBSI is acting as Client's investment adviser. Client understands that any funds Client has on deposit with the banks participating in IDP will be allocated among such banks in a manner described in the IDP Terms and Conditions.

18. Credit Information and Investigation. Client authorizes DBSI and Pershing to obtain reports concerning Client's credit standing and business conduct at their discretion without notifying Client. Client also authorizes DBSI to share among service providers (as set forth herein) and DBSI Affiliates such credit-related and business conduct information and any other confidential information DBSI, Deutsche Bank AG and such Affiliate(s) may have about Client and Client's Account in accordance with DBSI's Privacy Policy and Applicable Law. DBSI and Pershing will provide Client with a copy of each of their Privacy Policies shortly after execution by Client of this Agreement. Client may request a copy of Client's credit report, and upon request DBSI will identify the name and address of the consumer reporting agency that furnished it.

19. Confirmations, Statement) and Other Communications. Client agrees to notify DBSI in writing, within ten (10) days after transmittal to Client of a confirmation, of any objection Client has to any transaction in Client's Account(s). In the absence of such written notification, Client agrees that all transactions in Client's Account(s) will be final and binding. Client understands objections must be directed to the Branch Supervisor in writing, at the address on Client's account statement or confirm. For more information on how confirmations and account statements are delivered, please refer to the Appendix to this Account Agreement.

20. Recording Conversations. Client consents to DBSI recording any or all telephone calls with Client.

21. Joint Accounts.

a. Unless Clients specify "tenants in common" or "community property," Clients authorize DBSI to designate a joint account as "joint tenants with right of survivorship," or as "tenants by the entirety" if Clients are married and reside in a state that recognizes said designation for personal property. Clients agree that joint accounts will be carried by DBSI on Pershing's books in the form reflected by the Account name appearing on the account statement. In the event that the Account is a joint tenancy with right of survivorship or a tenancy by the entirety, the entire interest in the joint Account shall be vested in the survivor or survivors on the same terms and conditions as before the death. The survivors and the estate of the deceased Account holder will indemnify DBSI for any loss incurred through treatment of the Accounts provided herein.

b. Clients agree that each party to the joint account shall have authority to deal with DBSI as if each were the sole Account owner, all without notice to the other Account owner(s). Clients agree that notice to any Account owner shall be deemed to be notice to all account owners'. Each Account owner shall be jointly and severally liable for this Account. DBSI may follow the instructions of any owner concerning this Account and make deliveries to any owner, of any or all property and payment, even if such deliveries and/or payments shall be made to one owner personally and not to all of the Account owners. DBSI shall be under no obligation to inquire into the purpose of any such demand for delivery of securities or payment and shall not be bound to see to the application or disposition of the securities and/or monies so delivered or paid to any Account owner. Notwithstanding the foregoing, DBSI may require joint action by all account owners with respect to any matter concerning the account, including the giving or cancellation of orders and the withdrawal of monies, Securities and Other Property. In the event DBSI receives conflicting instructions from any owner, it may in its sole discretion: (a) follow any such instructions, (b) require written or verbal authorization of both, at the direction of either before acting on the instructions from any one owner, (c) send the assets of the Account to the address of the account or (d) file an interpleader action in an appropriate court to let the court decide the dispute.

In the event of the death of any owner, the survivor(s) shall immediately give DBSI written notice thereof. DBSI may, before or after receiving such notice, take such action, require such documents, retain such securities and/ , or restrict transactions in the Account as necessary for its protection against any tax, liability, penalty or loss under any present or future laws or otherwise. Any cost resulting from the death of any owner, or through the exercise by any decedent's estate, survivors (including other Account owners) or representatives of any rights in the Account shall be chargeable against the interest of the survivor(s) as well as against the interest of the estate. Of the decedent's estate and each survivor (including other Account owners) shall continue to be jointly and severally liable to DBSI for any obligation of the joint account or net debit balance or loss in said account until such time as DBSI distributes the assets in accordance with Clients' instructions.

22. Non-disclosure of Confidential and Material, Non-public Information. During the course of business, employees of DBSI may come into possession of confidential and material non-public information. Under Applicable Law, such employees are prohibited from improperly disclosing or using such information for their personal benefit or for the benefit of any other person, regardless of whether such other person is a Client of DBSI. Client understands that under Applicable Law, DBSI employees are prohibited from communicating such information to Client and that DBSI shall have no responsibility or liability to Client for failing to disclose such information.

23. Third Party Authorization; No Agency. Client agrees that if Client authorizes third party(ies) (including, without limitation, any investment advisor or money manager) to act on Client's Account such third party(ies) shall be bound by the Terms and Conditions of this Account Agreement. Client further agrees that unless otherwise agreed to in writing by DBSI third party(ies) authorized by Client to act for Client whether or not referred to Client by DBSI, is/are not, and shall not be deemed agents of DBSI and DBSI shall have no responsibility or liability to Client for any acts or omissions of such third party, or any officers, employees or agents thereof.

24. No Legal, Tax or Accounting Advice. Client acknowledges and agrees that: (a) neither DBSI, nor Pershing, provide any legal, tax or accounting advice, (b) neither DBSI nor Pershing employees are authorized to give any such advice and (c) Client will not solicit such advice or rely upon such advice given in error, whether or not in connection with transactions in or for any of Client's Account(s). In making legal, tax or accounting decisions with respect to transactions in or for Client's Account(s) or any other matter. Client will consult with and rely upon Client's own advisers, and not DBSI. Client acknowledges that DBSI shall have no liability therefore.

25. Limitation of Liability. Client agrees that unless otherwise provided in any other agreement between Client and DBSI or under Applicable Law, DBSI shall not be liable for any loss to Client except in the case of DBSI's gross negligence or willful misconduct. DBSI shall not be liable for loss caused directly or indirectly by government restrictions, exchange or market rulings, suspension of trading, war, strikes, act of foreign or domestic terrorism or other conditions beyond DBSI's control. DBSI shall not be liable for any damages caused by equipment failure, communications line failure, unauthorized access, theft, systems failure and other occurrences beyond DBSI's control.

26. Customer Inquiries/Customer Complaints. For general inquiries. Client will contact the Client Advisor or Branch Supervisor assigned to Client's Account(s) for questions or assistance on any matter relating to these Account(s).

Client must direct all formal complaints against DBSI or any of its employees to Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Compliance Department - Client Inquiries, 60 Wall Street 23rd Floor, Mail Stop NYC60-2330, New York, NY 10005-2836 or Client may call [REDACTED]

27. Entire Understanding. This Account Agreement contains the entire understanding between Client and DBSI concerning the subject matter of this Account Agreement and there are no oral or other agreements in conflict herewith. The Terms and Conditions of this Account Agreement shall apply to each and every account and, collectively, any and all funds, money, Securities and Other Property that Client has with DBSI and supersedes any prior Account Agreement Client may have signed with DBSI. Client acknowledges that Client may be required to enter into separate agreements with respect to products or services offered by or through DBSI or its affiliates.

28. Right to Terminate or Amend. Client agrees that DBSI has the right to terminate this Account Agreement and close any related accounts or amend the Terms and Conditions of this Account Agreement at any time and for any reason by sending written notice of such termination or amendment to Client. Any such termination or amendment shall be effective as of the date that DBSI establishes. Client cannot waive, alter, modify or amend this Account Agreement unless agreed in writing and signed by DBSI. No failure or delay on the part of DBSI to exercise any right or power hereunder or to insist at any time upon strict compliance with any term contained in this Account Agreement, shall operate as a waiver of that right or power or term.

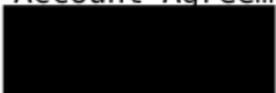

29. Controlling Law. This Account Agreement shall be deemed to have been made in the State of New York and shall be construed, and the rights of the parties determined, in accordance with the laws of the State of New York and the United States, as amended, without giving effect to the choice of law or conflict-of-laws provisions thereof.

30. Headings. Paragraph headings are for convenience only and shall not affect the meaning or interpretation of any provision of this Account Agreement.

31. Assignment Separability, Survivability. This Account Agreement shall be binding upon Client's heirs, executors, administrators, personal representatives and permitted assigns. It shall inure to the benefit of DBSI's successors and assigns, or any successor clearing broker, to whom DBSI may transfer Client's Account(s). DBSI may, without notice to Client assign the rights and duties under this Account Agreement to any of its Affiliates, or to any other nonaffiliate entity upon written notice to Client. If any provision or condition of this Account Agreement shall be held to be invalid or unenforceable by any court, administrative agency or regulatory or self-regulatory agency or body, such invalidity or unenforceability shall attach only to such provision or condition. The validity of the remaining provisions and conditions shall not be affected thereby and this Account Agreement shall be carried out as if any such invalid or unenforceable provision or condition were not contained herein.

32. The provisions of this Account Agreement governing arbitration (Section III), controlling law (Section 11.29) and limitation of liability (Section 11.25) will survive the termination of this Account Agreement.

III. ARBITRATION

1. This section of the Account Agreement contains the pre-dispute arbitration agreement between Client and DBSI and Pershing, as applicable, who agree as follows:

a. All parties to this Account Agreement (being Client, DBSI and Pershing) are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed, or as prohibited by Applicable Law;

b. Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited;

c. The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings;

d. The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award, unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date;

e. The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry;

f. The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court; and

g. The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Account Agreement

2. Subject to the preceding disclosure, Client agrees to arbitrate any controversies or disputes that may arise with DBSI or Pershing, whether based on events occurring prior to, on or subsequent to the date of this Account

Agreement, and including any controversy arising out of or relating to any Account with DBSI, the construction, performance or breach of any agreement, or any duty arising from any agreement or other relationship with DBSI, to transactions with or through DBSI, or any controversy as to whether any issue is arbitrable. Any arbitration under this Account Agreement shall be determined only before an arbitration panel set up by FINRA in accordance with its arbitration procedures or an exchange of which DBSI is a member in accordance with the rules of that particular regulatory agency then in effect. Client may elect in the first instance whether arbitration shall be by FINRA or a specific national securities exchange of which DBSI is a member, but failure to make such election by registered letter to Deutsche Bank Securities Inc., Compliance Department - Attention: Director of Compliance, 60 Wall Street

23rd Floor, Mail Stop NYC60-2330, New York, NY 10005-2836 within five days

afisr receipt of a written request from DBSl for such election, gives DBSI the right to elect the arbitration forum that will have jurisdiction over the dispute. Judgment upon art^itration atvards may be entered in any coun, state or federal, having jurisdiction. Any arbitration under this Account Agreement will tie conducted pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act and the laws of the State of New York.

3. Neither DBSI, Pershing nor Client(s) waive any right tn seek equitable relief pending arbitration. No pereon shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, npr seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putarive class actiori or whd is a inember of a putative class who hat> not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putativo class action until: (a) the class certification is denied, or (b) the class lis decertified, or (c) the Client is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement toi arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this egreoineet except to the extept stated herein.

General instructions

Section references refer to the Internal Revenue Code as noted.

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

1. Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued).

2. Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or

3. Claim exemption from backup withholding. If you are, a U.S. exempt person. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Date*Note.

If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An individual who is a U.S. citizen or U.S. resident alien,

- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States,
- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or
- A domestic trust (as defined in Regulations section 301.7701-7).

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business.

Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

DISCLOSURES

1. Confirmations. Confirmations of transactions, as well as other communications will be sent to the address Client has provided, or to such other address as Client may hereafter give to DBSI in writing, and all communications so sent, whether by mail, private carrier, facsimile, messenger, electronically or otherwise, shall be deemed delivered to Client when sent, whether actually received or not.

2. Consent to Loan or Pledge of Securities and other Property. Within the limitations imposed by Applicable Law, all Securities and Other Property now or hereafter held, carried or maintained by or in the possession of DBSI that have not been fully paid for may be lent to DBSI, to Pershing or to others, and may be pledged, repledged, hypothecated or rehypothecated without notice to Client, either separately or in common with other Securities and Other Property of DBSI's other Clients for any amount due in any account with DBSI in which Client has an interest, or for any greater amount, and DBSI may do so without retaining in its possession or control for delivery a like amount of similar Securities and Other Property. Client understands that while securities held for Client's Account(s) are loaned out. Client will lose voting rights attendant to such securities. For additional terms that apply to margin accounts only, see the Margin Addendum. Neither Pershing, nor DBSI, will lend or pledge fully paid for securities without Client's written permission.

3. Corrected and Late Trade Reports. DBSI may receive late and/or erroneous trade reports from the marketplace where Client's order is executed. Any such reports may result in an adjustment to Client's order or the information on a trade execution reported to Client.

4. Effect of Attachment or Sequestration of Accounts. DBSI shall not be liable for refusing to obey any orders given by or for Client with respect to any Account which is or has been subject to an attachment or sequestration in any legal proceeding against Client, and DBSI shall be under no obligation to contest the validity of any such attachment or sequestration.

5. Foreign Securities. With respect to debt or equity securities of foreign issuers or debt or deposit instruments of foreign banks ("Foreign Securities"), Client acknowledges and understands that: (a) Foreign Securities are, in most cases, not registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission or listed on any U.S. securities exchange, (b)

Foreign Securities, particularly those of issuers in the so-called "emerging markets" are often illiquid, are sometimes subject to legal and/or contractual transfer restrictions and it may be difficult or impossible to dispose of such Foreign Securities prior to the maturity thereof or to determine the market price thereof for valuation purposes, (c) Foreign Securities, and the issuer, guarantors or other obligors with respect thereto ("Foreign Issuers/Obligors") are subject to a variety of risks in addition to those typically faced in the case of U.S. securities and issuers, including, among other things, currency risk, exchange controls, confiscatory taxation, withholding, limitations on the rights of security holders, civil unrest, hyperinflation, discriminatory treatment of foreign investors, etc., (d) there is often less information available regarding Foreign Issuers/Obligors, and such information may be more difficult to interpret, than is the case with U.S. issuers whose securities are subject to the periodic reporting requirements under U.S. securities laws, (e) there may be no effective means to determine if a Foreign Issuer/Obligor is in default of its obligations in respect of its debt securities or other financial obligations (and Client specifically acknowledges that Foreign Securities which Client purchases may be in default at the time of purchase), (f) Foreign Securities in question may be unrated, and (g) such Foreign Securities are not suitable for all investors. Client authorizes DBSI to purchase Foreign Securities (and, in the case of Foreign Securities denominated in foreign currencies, the relevant foreign currencies) from or sell Foreign Securities (and foreign exchange) to an Affiliate of DBSI. In dealing with such Affiliates, such Affiliates may take and retain their normal commissions, spreads or other fees without regard to DBSI's relationship with Client.

6. Freeriding Prohibited (Not Applicable to Margin Accounts). Paying for the purchase of securities in a cash account with the proceeds of their subsequent sale, known as freeriding, violates Regulation T of the Federal Reserve Board, is prohibited and may, among other things, result in Client's Account being restricted or closed.

7. Impartial Lottery Allocation System. When DBSI holds Securities and Other Property that are callable (all or in part) on Client's behalf, Client will participate in DBSI's impartial lottery allocation system for the callable Securities and Other Property.

8. Non-Investment Adviser Capacity. Unless DBSI agrees otherwise in writing, DBSI is not acting as an "investment adviser" (as such term is defined in the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended) with respect to the Client's Account(s).

9. Non-United States Resident Additional Disclosure and Understanding.

Tills disclosure apoies to non-United States residents and non-United States domiciled entities. Client's Account is based in the United States, and not in Client's counnty of residence. DBSI accounts, products and services may not have been registered, reviewed or approved by any governmental, benking or securities regulator in Client's country of retsidence or domiciie. Nut ell of DBSI accounts, products, services or investrnents are available to residents of all countries. Many countries have various laws, rules and regulations that may apply to opening and maintaining accounts, products or services outside Client's country or residence on domicile, inciuding reporting and filing requirements and laws, rules and regulations regarding taxes, exchange or capital controls. Client is responsible for knowledge of and adherence to any such laws, rules and regulations and reporting or filing requirements in Client's country or domicile of residence that might apply as a resultiof Client's Account with DBSI iii the United States. These may include but are not limited to, tax, foreign exchange or capital controls, and reporting or filing requirements that may apply as a result of Client's country of citizenship, domicile or residence. Client currently complies and will continiie to comply with ahy snch laws, rules, reguiations and reporting nr filing niquirements as required by Client!s country of citizenship, residence or domicile.

10. Notices. Notices and other communications may also be provided to Client verbally. Such notices and other communications left for Client on Client's answering machine, voice mail, electronic mail or otherwise, are considered to have been delivered to Client whether actually received or not. Transactions entered into Client's Account shall be confirmed by DBSI in writing where required by law or regulation. DBSI will not send separate confirmations for the following transactions: (a) dividends or distributions credited or reinvested, or transactions effected pursuant to a Dividend Reinvestment Plan, (b) shares of money market funds that are purchased or redeemed, or are part of the Cash Sweep Options, or (c) transactions effected pursuant to a periodic plan or an investment company plan. Client's periodic account statements will reflect these transactions. Notices concerning all matters related to Account(s) usually will go through DBSI although Pershing may send notice(s) directly to Client with a duplicate to DBSI should market conditions, time, constraints or other circumstances so require.

11. Possible Conflicts of Interest. Services and recommendations that DBSI provides to Client may differ from the services and recommendations provided to other Clients or by other individuals or groups at DBSI and/or affiliates of Deutsche Bank AG, whether acting as principal or agent. DBSI provides investment advice, portfolio management and execution services for many Clients and, in addition, acts as principal in various markets. Given these different roles, individuals and groups at DBSI and affiliates of Deutsche Bank AG are seldom of one view as to an investment strategy and may pursue differing or conflicting strategies. Employees of DBSI shall have no obligation to recommend to Client, or inform Client of, strategies being pursued by DBSI or other Clients. Further, (a) DBSI and its affiliates may provide services for a fee to or solicit business from companies whose securities are recommended by DBSI, (b) DBSI and its affiliates may be paid fees by investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or other investment vehicles, including without limitation, fees for acting as investment advisor, administrator, custodian and transfer agent, and (c) DBSI and its affiliates act as brokers, principals and/or market makers in certain markets and may do so in transactions with Client. DBSI may recommend securities or strategies that are issued, underwritten, implemented or advised by DBSI or one or more of its affiliates. DBSI may receive compensation, in addition to the compensation Client pays DBSI, in the form of Rule 12b-1 fees, distribution fees, finder's fee, fees based upon fund reinvestment fees and cash or non-cash payments that are paid by mutual funds (out of fund assets in the case of Rule 12b-1 fees) or by the managers and other service providers to the funds (not out of fund assets). DBSI also participates in a program offered by Pershing, under which DBSI shares in revenue received by Pershing from mutual funds offered on the Pershing platform. All of these payments may vary based on sales volume or assets under management and may give DBSI a financial incentive to recommend certain funds or strategies and to include those funds in models and programs. In addition, DBSI may receive trail compensation in connection with sales of auction rate securities.

12. Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). DBSI provides SIPC coverage through Pershing and/or as a member of SIPC. For additional information on this coverage see www.SIPC.org or call the SIPC public information number [REDACTED]. Client will refer to the Annual Disclosure Statement at <http://www.pwm.db.com/amerioas/en/annualdisclosurestatement.html> for additional information regarding SIPC and excess of SIPC coverage.

13. Tax-Exempt Entities. Charitable remainder trusts, foundations, pension plans and other tax-exempt entities may be deemed to receive unrelated business taxable income (UBTI) as a result of investing in certain securities, borrowing monies under a margin loan, investing in a partnership or limited liability company that generates UBTI or other leverage or loan arrangements. Tax-exempt entities should consult with their tax adviser before making an investment or entering into such an arrangement. If Client's periodic Account Statement indicates that any Securities were forwarded to Client and Client has not received them, Client should notify DBSI immediately. If notification is received within 120 days after the mailing date, as reflected on Client's Account Statement, replacement will be made free of charge. Thereafter, a fee for replacement may apply.
