Notice of Customer Identification Policy

Important Information
To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering activities, Federal law requires a financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who establishes an account, ii restment or other business relationship with a financial Institution. This means that we will ask for your name, address, an: other information that will allow us ro identify you. We may also ask to see identifying documents such as a certificate of formation or good standing (legal entities) or a passport or other photo identification (individuals).

3rd EU Notice

Governmental rules have also broadened the scope of the Bank's obligations to aid in the fight against money laundering and terrorist financing; these rules call for an active involvement of both asset management firms and their clients. , -or new and existing clients we currently have a legal obligation to ask our customers questions regarding their identities, addresses, source of funds and, if necessary, legal representatives, authorized signatories, beneficial owners <control structures and to collect requisite documentation to substantiate the information. Also, enhanced anti-money laundering requirements require that should any of the above personal or institutional information change, our clients would be obliged to immediately notify us of the change(s) and provide us with relevant documentation to verify these < changes.

Telephone, Facsimile or Email Instructions

By signing below, you agree that from time to time you may give instructions by telephone, facsimile or email regarding the above captioned account(s) {defined herein as "Verbal Instructions"). It is understood that the risk of Verbal Instructions being given by person or persons purported to be you is your own. Absent the gross negligence or willful misconduct of Deutsche Bank Trust Company Americas (DBTCA), you agree to indemnify and hold harmless DBTCA for any claims, losses, expenses, costs or attorneys' fees resulting from DBTCA's acting upon such misunderstood and unauthorized Verbal Instructions. You understand that DBTCA may, but shall not be required to, seek verification of your verbal, facsimile or email instructions by cell check. In case of doubt, DBTCA may exercise sole discretion refuse to execute your Verbal Instructions or any part thereof, without incurring any liability. DBTCA is under no obligation to execute your Verbal Instructions to transfer funds or securities to any account(s) without written instructions bearing your original signature.

Joint Account Disclosure

You have opened a joint account with DBTCA and acknowledge receipt of the following information: This document and any additions to the account shall become the property of each owner as joint tenants, and DBTCA may release the entire account to any owner during the lifetime of all owners, DBTCA may honor checks, orders or withdrawal requests; from any owner during the lifetime of all owners. The Bank may be required by service of legal process to remit funds held in the joint account to satisfy a judgment entered against, or other valid debt incurred by, any owner of the account. DBTCA may honor checks, orders or withdrawal requests from the survivor(s) after the death of any owner(s) and may inherit the account as the sole property of the survivor(s) after the death of any owner(s). Unless DBTCA receives written notice signed by any owner not to pay or deliver any joint deposit or addition or accrual, DBTCA shall not be liable to any owner for continuing to honor checks, orders or withdrawal requests from any owner. After the receipt of the notice referred to in the previous sentence, DBTCA may require the written authorization of any or all joint owners for any further payments or deliveries.
