

11. Possible Conflicts of Interest. Services and recommendations that DBSI provides to Client may differ from the services and recommendations provided to other Clients or by other individuals or groups at DBSI and/or affiliates of Deutsche Bank AG, whether acting as principal or agent. DBSI provides investment advice, portfolio management, and execution services for many Clients and, in addition, acts as principal in various markets. Given these different roles, individuals and groups at DBSI and affiliates of Deutsche Bank AG are seldom of one view as to an investment strategy and may pursue differing or conflicting strategies. Employees of DBSI shall have no obligation to recommend to Client, or inform Client of, strategies being pursued by DBSI or other Clients. Further, (i) DBSI and its affiliates may provide services for a fee to or solicit business from companies whose securities are recommended by DBSI; (ii) DBSI and its affiliates may be paid fees by investment companies registered under the Investment Company Act of 1940 or other investment vehicles, including without limitation, fees for acting as investment advisor, administrator, custodian, and transfer agent; and (iii) DBSI and its affiliates act as brokers, principals, and/or market makers in certain markets and may do so in transactions with Client. DBSI may recommend securities or strategies that are issued, underwritten, implemented or advised by DBSI or one or more of its affiliates. DBSI may receive compensation, in addition to the compensation Client pays DBSI, in the form of Rule 12b-1 fees, distribution fees, finder's fees, fees based upon fund management fees and cash or non-cash payments that are paid by mutual funds (out of fund assets in the case of Rule 12b-1 fees) or by the managers and other service providers to the funds (not out of fund assets). DBSI also participates in a program offered by Pershing, under which DBSI shares in revenue received by Pershing from mutual funds offered on the Pershing platform. All of these payments may vary based on sales volume or assets under management and may give DBSI a financial incentive to recommend certain funds or strategies and to include those funds in models and programs. In addition, DBSI may receive trail compensation in connection with sales of auction rate securities.
12. Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). DBSI provides SIPC coverage through Pershing and/or as a member of SIPC. For additional information on this coverage see www.SIPC.org or call the SIPC public information number 201-371-8300. Client will refer to the Annual Disclosure Statement, at <http://www.pwm.db.com/americas/en/annualdisclosurestatement.html> for additional information regarding SIPC and excess of SIPC coverage.
13. Tax-Exempt Entities. Charitable remainder trusts, foundations, pension plans and other tax-exempt entities may be deemed to receive unrelated business taxable income (UBTI) as a result of investing in certain securities, borrowing monies under a margin loan, investing in a partnership or limited liability company that generates UBTI or other leverage or loan arrangements. Tax-exempt entities should consult with their tax adviser before making an investment or entering into such arrangement. If Client's periodic Account Statement indicates that any Securities were forwarded to Client and Client has not received them, Client should notify DBSI immediately. If notification is received within 120 days after the mailing date, as reflected on Client's Account Statement, replacement will be made free of charge. Thereafter, a fee for replacement may apply.

DEFINITIONS

The following are definitions of certain terms that are used within this Account Agreement. As required, the singular shall be plural and the plural shall be singular.
