

These resources can provide economic, regional and industry research as well as assistance in structuring, execution, management and realisation of individual investments. By drawing on the wide range of resources and relationships of Deutsche Bank, as well as the Secondary Team's own network and capabilities, the Manager expects to be well positioned to source and evaluate attractive investment opportunities for the Fund.