RMBS bond is being worked as agent (open architecture). Looking for buyer at 74.

On Friday, JP's own agency desk (not the JP trader, the private bank's agency desk) was in touch with a market in the ~74 context according to Paul B. Our agency desk could not get in touch with that market; DB agency desk not covered by the same brokers broker. We're working again today to get in touch with that 74 bid.
