

12mths (Chart 2)) we could see further inflows in favour of "income" strategies in the equity space. Dividends could come back again as a theme to play in this "anaemic" market for returns.

A part from CROCI DIVIDEND strategies (the core for an asset allocation in dividend stocks via dynamic strategies), here are a few DB custom synthetic baskets that are investing in "dividend" related stocks (static baskets):

DBCDD3N	Dependable Dividends
DBCTDGYN	Dividend Growth, high yield
DBCTUQDN	UK Quality Dividend
DBUSDIVG	US Dividend Growth

You can invest in the baskets easily via delta 1 certificates.

You can find the constituents on bloomberg (page DBCU) or ask me if you need.
