Hi gents,
I connected with him last night (also to Raphael) and reinforced the message on the opportunity.

Will revert after his call with MF.

Good luck today,

D

Dario,

Both Haig and I reached out over the weekend to Paul. I spent some time on Saturday with him which I thought was very constructive. He's engaged and very interested in the position. Most importantly to him, it offers the opportunities to expand his role to LatAm and have a personal impact on developing a strategically important business within a global bank. He recognizes that at JP he will always be a cog in a wheel, but can move the needle at DB.

Paul speaks with Michele tomorrow by video at noon. Would be helpful if you have another chance to connect with him.

Best,

chip
