suggest give JE similar update on his options if and eurUSD touches 134.50 ... (its 135.25 at the moment) should that happen soon we can think about getting an order from him to scale out should it gets to 1.34 or 133.50 if he is fortunate to make 50% of the target P&L in a week he should just take it and we can reload later
