In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Transfers.

Contact your client service specialist or write us at 500 Stanton Christiana Road, 1/OPS, Newark, DE 19713-2107 as soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a transfer on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared. (1) Tell us your name and account number. (2) Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is in error or why you need more information. (3) tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error. If you contact us orally, you must send us your complaint or question in writing within 10 business days in order to preserve your rights. We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days to do this (20 days for purchases using your debit card or for international transactions), we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error, so that you will have the use of money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In case of errors or questions about your statement, including your line of credit.

If you think that your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about a transaction on your statement including a line of credit transaction, you must write to us on a separate sheet describing the error and send it to: JPMorgan, Private Bank, 500 Stanton Christiana Road, 1/OPS3, Newark, DE 19713-2107. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after the statement on which the error or problem appeared is sent. You can contact your client service specialist but doing so will not preserve your rights.

In your letter, please provide the following information: (1) your name and account number; (2) the dollar amount of the suspected error; and (3) a description of the error and explanation, if you can, why you believe there is an error. If you need more information, you must describe the item you are unsure about.

The JPMorgan Funds or The JPMorgan Institutional Funds or The American Century Funds

J.P. Morgan Funds Distributor, Inc. is the distributor of the J.P. Morgan Funds and American Century Investment Services Inc. is the distributor of the American Century Funds. JPMorgan Investment Management Inc. and American Century Investment Management serve as investment advisors to their respective fund families. Shares of the funds are not bank deposits and are not guaranteed by any bank, government entity, or the FDIC. Return and share price will fluctuate and redemption value may be more or less than original cost. While the money market funds seek to maintain a stable net asset value of $1.00 per share, there is no assurance that they will continue to do so. The estimated annual income and dividend yield figures for mutual funds represent the funds' most recent income dividend annualized.

If you have chosen one of the sweep mutual funds, you are notified that positions in the Prime Money Market Sweep Fund represent holdings in the JPMorgan Prime Money Market Fund; positions in the Federal Money Market Sweep Fund represent holdings in the JPMorgan Federal Money Market Fund; and positions in the Tax Exempt Money Market Sweep Fund represent holdings in the JPMorgan Tax Exempt Money Market Fund.

JPMorgan Private Bank is the marketing name for the private banking business conducted by J.P. Morgan Chase & Co. through its subsidiaries worldwide, including JPMorgan Chase Bank, J.P. Morgan Trust Company, N.A. and J.P. Morgan Securities Inc.

JPMI is a member of the Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC), a not-for-profit membership corporation funded by broker-dealers registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission. Securities and cash held for a customer account at JPMI are protected up to an amount of $50,000,000. The first $500,000 of protection, which includes up to $100,000 of protection for cash, is provided by SIPC. The balance of the protection, which includes up to an additional $900,000 of protection for cash, is provided by a separate Excess Securities Bond issued by Travelers Casualty and Surety Company of America. This SIPC and excess SIPC protection does not protect against losses from fluctuations in the value of the securities. Assets held in custody by JPMCB are not subject to SIPC coverage.
