We will be making the following changes to the Deposit Account Agreement for Chase checking and savings accounts, effective March 24, 2013.

We have:

- Added the following language to the Important Definitions section: Debit card transaction: Includes any purchase from a merchant using your ATM card or debit card.
- Modified the agreement to clarify that we will only send one copy of any notice relating to your account, even if the account has more than one owner.
- Revised our Funds Availability Policy. Under Longer Delays May Apply, we describe circumstances where funds may not be available until the seventh business day after the day of deposit. We are deleting the sentence saying that the first $200 from your deposit will be available on the next business day, so if we delay availability in those cases the delay may apply to the full amount of the deposit.

All other terms of your account agreement remain the same. If you have questions about the changes, please call us at the number on this statement or visit your nearest branch.

There has been no activity on your account during this statement period. You may not receive a statement through the mail in the future if there is no activity on your account. You can always view your account activity and statement by logging on to your account through chase.com. If you have questions, please call us at the number on this statement.

Please note this account had no activity during this statement period. The date of last activity for this account was 11/28/12.
