Important information about your Chase Business Checking Account Statements

Starting November 14, 2011, we are making it easier to track your Chase ATM and debit card transactions. On your deposit statement, look for a new section called "ATM and Debit Card Summary" to see all of your ATM and debit card transactions organized by each authorized cardholder.

Please note that any ATM or Debit card transactions that post to your account before November 14, 2011 will not show under this new section. The "ATM and Debit Card Withdrawals" section will not change and will continue to display all of your ATM and debit card transactions in date order.

We value you as a Chase customer. If you have any questions, please call us at 1-800-CHASE38 (1-800-242-7338).

We are making some changes that affect Chase personal and business checking, savings and Certificate of Deposit (CD) accounts, including retirement accounts*. Enclosed with this statement is a rewritten Deposit Account Agreement (formerly known as the Account Rules and Regulations). The new design of this booklet will make it easier for you to read and find the information you need quickly.

Please review the information and keep this as reference with your other financial documents.

Please note: If you would like to receive the Deposit Account Agreement in Spanish, they will be available at your nearest Chase branch, starting February 1, 2012.

*For checking and savings accounts, all changes are effective on February 1, 2012. For CD accounts, the changes are effective on the first CD maturity date occurring on or after February 1, 2012.
