Important information about your Business Checking Account Statements Starting November 14, 2011, we are making it easier to track your business ATM and debit card transactions. On your deposit statement, look for a new section called "ATM and Debit Card Summary" to see all of your ATM and debit card transactions organized by each authorized cardholder.

Please note that any ATM or debit card transactions that post to your account before November 14, 2011 will not show under this new section. The "ATM and Debit Card Withdrawals" section will not change and will continue to display all of your ATM and debit card transactions in date order.

If you have any questions, please contact your J.P. Morgan team.

Important Information About Your Statement

In Case of Errors or Questions About Your Electronic Funds Transfers

Call or write to the Bank (Consumers should use the phone number and address on front of statement and non-consumers their J.P. Morgan Team contact information.) if you think your statement or receipt is incorrect, or if you need more information about an electronic transaction on a statement or receipt. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent you the FIRST statement on which the error or problem appeared.

Tell us your name and account number.

Describe the error or the transfer you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.

Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

We will investigate your complaint and will correct any error promptly. If we take more than 10 business days (or 20 business days for new accounts) to do this, we will credit your account for the amount you think is in error so that you will have use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation.

In Case of Errors or Questions About Non-Electronic Transfers (Checks or Deposits):

Contact the Bank immediately if your statement is incorrect or if you need more information about any non-electronic transactions (checks or deposits) on this statement. If any such error appears, you must notify the bank in writing as soon as possible after the statement was made available to you. For more complete details, see the applicable account agreements and appendices that govern your account.
