We are pleased to announce several banking benefits offered exclusively to our private clients. When you maintain combined average balances of $100,000 or more in your linked accounts, we will waive all routine transaction fees.* For example, you will not pay a maintenance fee or fees for wire transfers or statement copies. In addition, we will provide a higher yield on your Premier Checking and Money Market Investment Accounts - a yield that is above the very competitive rates we currently offer on those products. The added convenience and control over your banking does not end here.

We are introducing the Chase Privileges Banking Card, a new MasterCard(R) debit card that allows you to manage personal and household expenses more effectively.

You designate individual family members or personal staff as cardholders and set specific daily spending limits. Purchases are conveniently debited from your checking account. Please contact your Morgan representative for more information on these new features.
