Hi Justin,

I will work on this for you but it will take a little bit of research to determine their spend pattern.

Thank you

Dodie – are you able to tell me what the products are for each of these accounts and your thoughts on whether they could be on better products based on activity? Especially from a membership rewards perspective? Thanks. Justin Sorry, this is not a question that I can answer. If you have additional questions on the products or offers you can reach out to Executive Services. I am in a production environment and have unable to answer specific questions on the cards of products the customer already has.

Thank you

Robert – what types of cards do they have on each account? Do they have the best product from a points program?

I assume they do not have the palladium card – is it possible to offer that on any of these or would that be an issue because you can spend 3 times the limit?

Thanks, Justin
