Hi dear! How are you? ❤️

I might have a good job proposition for you! 😊

Dear It will be a personal assistant job in the business trips. It would be a part time, regular work. Which means, that in one month there will be organized 2-3 trips, for 3-4 days. Payment will be around 500 euro/day. Since you are studying/working, the dates would always be arranged with you before the trips. We are looking for someone who would be motivated to work for the long term period (6 months - 1 year). It would be really great opportunity to travel, work, and earn regular monthly salary! 😊 would you be interested? Could I try to propose you? 😊 if you would
