

Attorney: Jeffrey Epstein victims not silenced by NDAs

ANOTHER POINT OF VIEW

A Washington Post op-ed titled, “Epstein case points to creeping rot in the U. S. justice system” appeared last Sunday in The Palm Beach Post. The piece makes an important point: that nondisclosure agreements (NDAs) in civil lawsuits should not be permitted to allow wealthy and powerful perpetrators to silence their victims. With that point, I absolutely agree.

However, the op-ed used the civil

...