Had a little round with colleagues at the bank. It comes out that Paris is doing much better than Geneva

12:40:59 pm

I'm aware. what is the reason?

[REDACTED]

I personally think the ceo in Paris is way better, but more independent than his Geneva counterpart. He did not recruit as many people as they did in Geneva and focus more or developing business with existing clients

12:58:39 pm

Geneva is also suffering from the general trend of Swiss banking with the additional impact of the gossip about the internal struggles in the bank

I have not seen the exact figures though. Had lunch with some bankers in Geneva who claim they feel there is no management nor strategy
