Jeffrey do you still want to buy art from Medici ?
He is waiting... please let us know.
We were with Brock at his house on Ibiza... he is so strongly convinced in success of the Bank. Lorenzo is a brand and Ed Boyle - operations.

Jeffrey, for Medici bank, they want minimum 50K now from me and Alex... We thought to put 30K cash and 20K as a free one month retainer for PR (barter in exchange). So Medici will get a free month of PR basically for accepting our investment. or how do we play around our PR value in order to convince them to take our 30 K ? I have 45K of money to investment in startups and if i invest all in one and it fails...it would turn off my drive to invest :-/ another idea is to give them 50% discount on PR for 3 months contract in exchange of accepting our low investment... thanks a lot for your thoughts!

Hi Jeffrey, would you be interested in a CBD cosmetics company with Kate Hudson as their face?
