WHERE ARE YOU?

01:03:15 pm

Re disclosure , Justin should have known. And told you. You don't have a lawsuit , legally, . Its all negotiation. From here on in. The jury has found you guilty on many counts. !! you can appeal . So can Cosby. . damage done. End game needs attention

I am working on a public statement which is the appropriate thing right now, as part of the emotional public jury.. You will see it before I do anything.. I am back in Portland.. It is 6 am, and everyone else in the house is asleep, but I woke at 5 am with my mind buzzing and I needed to write to calm it, which is what I am doing.. Please don't call now as Nancy, and her brother and his daughter, who are visiting, are sleeping.. I accept that there may not be the basis of a lawsuit, legally... but the does remove the nature of confidentiality.

Not only did they find you guilty , they decided to be visious in their pronouncments

01:10:24 pm

Lawrence

I should say, "which I believe is the appropriate thing right now". Also.. I just received a message from a scientist who claims he is willing to testify in court that Melanie has fabricated claims in the past.. for what that is worth. anyway, you are right that the University has been vicious.. and my opportunity, if I have any, is to demonstrate that they have been too vicious.. back to writing now.

01:11:47 pm

What is the goal?

01:13:24 pm

Lawrence

at this point to demonstrate bias and ridiculous nature of the process as well as the allegations.. both internally and to the public. I have no idea and no expectation of retaining my job, though miracles do happen (just not divine ones), but I will fight this initial appeal process because it is necessary, and also begin the public campaign which I will later be quite vocal about (as I agree it may be my one hope for any kind of public action in the near term).. as a part of the "this has gone too far and must be stopped" movement.

01:15:48 pm

back to writing now.. don't want to lose momentum!

01:17:06 pm

As I said , I think you should go sit with crow

03:45:15 pm

Lawrence

And eat crow? :)

03:46:32 pm

Just finished draft of a public document. Am very pleased with it. Will send to you sometime this weekend after going over it.

Re crow: he will refuse to see me as he cannot be seen as intervening or interfering with the process at this point.

03:47:32 pm

Ok. . your appeal and the public document are political docs. Not legal. Per se. . my concern is that you go through 4 months of this, and end up with no money. And legal fees. But it is a path

03:50:06 pm

Lawrence

I will only carry Justin through the conciliation process, which I will lead. If that fails as you expect it will I will rethink, and if it seems worthwhile going through more formal grievance procedure I will move to a different law form of your choosing. I will also investigate a severance package of some sort after conciliation if necessary with the threat of a protracted legal and public process to use as leverage with uni. I believe this is largely consistent with your advice.

L

03:52:47 pm

Not consistent. Sorry, the conciliation process is the place to negotiate your severance. Not after

03:53:43 pm

Lawrence

The conciliation process is with 3 faculty, not the university. If I am wrong about this then I agree with you.

L

03:54:55 pm

You are right , but they act as intermediaries

03:55:20 pm

If they decide against you. Then the university. Will have a hard time paying squat

03:55:56 pm

Lawrence

Let's see how that develops and be ready to burn that bridge when we come to it. :)

L

03:56:21 pm

Ok

03:56:32 pm

Lawrence

Thanks for everything Jeffrey.

03:56:51 pm

Sorry , .

03:57:02 pm

The reason I suggest using conciliation is Justins goal and demeanor , at and during that process. If he thinks this is a merit based case. As he has done to date. You will lose your chance at money

03:58:10 pm

But enough . Good luck

03:58:16 pm

Lawrence

I agree with you about a lot of it. Which is why Nancy and I decided that I will control the conciliation process considering his advice and contributions of course, and if he disagrees we will ask him to leave.

03:59:33 pm

You will be integral during all my decisions.

03:59:49 pm

I assume you mean by integral . Approaching the zero limit

04:04:47 pm

Lawrence

Ha. No. That is infinitesimal. Integral means all or nothing. ie 1 or 0. :)

04:09:04 pm

Although it might also mean the limit of an infinite series. :)

04:13:59 pm

It seems like the limit of infinite...

04:28:54 pm

I know I've reached mine 😊
