Spoke to office other day. Said ██████████ stuff is in process, they are working on defining a new position (there are no vacancies right now), title, level etc. It is a done deal, but I have to let it go through regular processes. No worry!
Did not find any contact info for Fish. Pls send. See mail I sent dr Ogden's office. Call when up.

Just finished with Anas - very good! He's a good guy. Was supposed to have dinner with R tonight. A informed me just now that he can't make it but that he will see me at 12:30 tomorrow. May I suggest that we have late lunch together at 2pm? Shall I find a suitable restaurant?

I've arranged everything - the archbishops of Paris is going to do the ceremony in Notre Dame tomorrow at noon. I will be your best man and I've arranged a wedding party at the Elysee palace. The pope is coming, and he and Macron will bless both of you in an unprecedented ceremony. It will be broadcasted live all over the world. I was just told that both Donald and the President of China will attend. I have been confidentially informed that the great leader of North Korea might come as well. Please keep this to yourself. The airspace over France will be closed during the ceremony. This is the least I can do for the happy couple! 🤔🤔
