The all star game is easy to raise money for

Think we should do it in Abu Dhabi. They have a Ministry for tolerance, and UAE owns several of the best clubs.
Was the mail to Bill ok? The mail to Chris Elias on the Gates Foundation worked. He is going to call me tomorrow.

An American all star game takes the best position player from each league. So Brazil forward, France goalie. UAE. Back. Etc. . The football all stars represent the best the world has to offer. No country rivalry , only sport. At a level never seen before. Sponsors would be easy. Would have a audience as large as World Cup finals. . as every country would watch as opposed to only the two finalists.

04:11:43 am

I think you could put forward the idea at Davos. And they could get the credit as a WORLD org

04:12:56 am

In fact they could have the top 8 goalies in the world. And each one plays a quarter time. Or can switch sides .

04:13:56 am

Terje

The idea is great! There is something called World Tolerance Day. That could be the timing. Don't think World Economic Forum in Davos is right place. There are two, three meters of snow there in January! I am thinking of Abu Dhabi. They have a Ministry for Tolerance, which is looking for what to do. I know the minister well.

08:53:27 am

Should not be a country sponsor- too political- it could be the Un world bank or wef

09:15:05 am

oo

Terje

Or IPI. UN is too bureaucratic and being a membership organization it would be politicized. WEF could be a partner. They are not a membership org. Klaus decides everything! Venue could be Abu Dhabi.

On another matter: Gates didn't answer email. However I had a good conversation with Chris Elias, head of the foundation on the phone. He is setting up a meeting with the head of Gates Foundation in London when I'm back from Davos. Would still be good to see Gates in Davos.

On another: Rita came back and said she would be helpful with Edward!!

09:25:28 am

UAE ambassador, Lana, will write letter to. NYU President. Ed and she will talk on skype tomorrow.
