Hey Jeffrey!😊 I was talking with my friend on the phone, and he explained me very clearly the investment structure. Please take a look if you won&apos;t be busy.😊

08:54:49 am

That is the business structure that i have attached. Now the reason for having a TIL venture capital limited is because, in a HONGKONG company, they only allow 50 shareholders.

I have 40 friends and family who wants to buy shares at THINGS I LIKE COMPANY LIMITED, but problem is if i allow each one to own a share in THINGS I LIKE COMPANY LIMITED, it will finished all 40 allocation of shareholder and Thing I Like Company limited will only have 10 left for shareholders where in if we do Series A funding and we raise 20M USD we might have 4 VC's there then series B for 100M USD we might have 10 VC's there, so there will be no space for them. Whats gonna happen for Series C , D and So on. Thats why all sharesholders of TIL venture capital limited, once we do the IPO, each shareholder will have shares of THINGS i LIKE company limited since its IPO already and many people or public can own as many shareholder we want.

If we be willing to be part of the things I like company limited now, they can not allow lower than 200usd, so that they will still have space for series A to E investors. At this early stage they are raising only 2m usd.
