The police found two of my three wallets, my drivers license, my debit card, my credit card, and two of the visa gift cards abandoned in a parking lot

03:34:44 am

Brought it to me this evening

03:34:47 am

They said they have suspects who are repeat offenders

03:34:55 am

Its a group of reckless youth living in Cambridge who dress up as Harvard students and go around to every room trying to see who's rooms are unlocked

03:35:15 am

Apparently they're only interested in technology because its the only thing they can sell that isn't traceable

03:35:31 am

They aren't 100% sure that its these kids but they are suspicious because these kids have been caught doing this exact same thing before

03:35:50 am

And the location where they found my wallet and stuff was right next to where one of the kids lives

03:36:04 am

I'm sleeping in late tomorrow morning because I'm spending the night in the library but will call you at some point tomorrow if I get anymore details

Eva

Did you ever go to Zion in Utah? Or did you know anyone that did?

03:01:15 pm

I can't figure out where is the best place to stay...Zion Mountain Ranch or Zion Lodge...Zion Lodge is inside the park, easy access to hikes and very close to Springdale, but a little more expensive, and Zion Mountain Ranch is secluded (about 30-40 min drive from the national park) but looks beautiful and is on a buffalo preserve

03:02:18 pm

I was many years ago lodge had great feeling

03:06:40 pm

Eva

Okay I agree

03:07:54 pm

We are going to do Zion Lodge

03:24:02 pm

When?
