At the end of the day, we are "old" Jews. When we finished eating, all the plates were in the middle of the table. That was fun

Epstein, I went back to 2nd Ave deli. Had the frankfurters with mustard and sour kraut. Also had the onion rings which were the best I ever tasted. Finished the meal with a chocolate soda. That's right, chocolate soda. The best. When we going back?

I also just read an article in The NY Times that a woman in upstate NY was shot to death while walking her dogs. The person that shot her thought she was a deer. I think that's a definitive case of a Shlomazel.
