glad you hear you are back to being happy. however as you must understand . It is difficult for me to fully trust you. you have behaved very very badly . and I would like to give you a THIRD chance. This will be the last chance. If you disappoint me again , I will no longer speak to you, offer help . or advice. with regards your friend , can you send more details. photo name. etc. . then i will decide. . I know you are smart and i appreciate that part of you. dont play games with me I have great experience and you will lose . and will have wasted a great opportunity.
