I am in meetings , happy to do the 17th like I told you . I will take you off payroll Monday. And if Steve prefers. he can pay for your health insurance. If thats what you want. . since you have decided to act recklessly , I will do as you ask on the dates I told you , but it seems you have decided to go your own path in the face and in direct contradiction to what I know is in your best interest. . if I finish early before I leave I will call

You cannot merely show up at my house and expect time. I have no idea what is up , but I know you have at least temp. Lost your way

I'm REALLY sorry. I can come by anytime and the 17th too if thats best for you. I don't know what thing impacts the other if i don't know about the other. My path was one i thought you'd be happy about. I'm so sorry!
