Thanks again for yesterday. I will send you some thoughts - do you want to ask your attorney if it presents less surface area for attack if I write it for her/him with regard to the next steps in the federal case? That's what it is, so it would have the decided advantage of being true. John Pinette

Had a good setting with Nick. But I'm thinking very hard about working together. Darren is a smart fellow (and fine representative of your interests). Much intrigued.
