I haven't heard from you forever! I miss your fine self and trust that I made it through the cut. 🙄 I know you said you were doing a big purge of people in your life as they're too many.

Please let me know how you are. And how is your back feeling?

What would be best/easiest for you as far as taking care of the tuition for the camp(s). I'm on the waitlist for two for next week and have found one other 4 day long intensive volleyball one in July that I can sign her up for starting today.

Just left you a phone message. Didn't meet Gavin last night, but just heard back just now...In regard to products

"I think we really want to develop a full line of CBD topical, tinctures, THC oils, massage oil, lotions, etc. I see a line of 6-8 products that all cater to aches and pains, anti anxiety, etc."

So, they don't have anything yet.

██████████
cool

05:47:25 pm

Ask them if you can work for them for 6 months to fully understand the potential of the businesses

05:48:00 pm

██████████
OK. Any suggestions about in what capacity Or just offer to work/ oversee everything they do? Intern?

05:50:38 pm

No intern, ask for a job

These guys are like molasses. I did meet with one of the CEOs last week finally, and I'm supposed to meet with two of them this week. They don't really have anything for me and are talking about me doing an MLM or home parties aspect of the business. Doesn't teach me much of anything though. I've been doing lots of research and many phone calls. Any thoughts on your end?
