Hello, Hope all goes well for you. Paris time was tough survival to me, now when I'm back home I realize thru what I had to overcome. And I'm very thankful I met such an amazing person as you who I could turn to at my hardest times there. I'm very thankful and always will be for who you are and that you've helped me enormously and I feel sad at times thinking what impression I've left, because I'm not such a person and wanted apologize deeply. That I back then took some towels of yours I needed take to swimming pool or something but I never needed to take without return and it was very stupid of me to do this ever without permission. And I very regret that and feel bad about myself because I question all time myself if that's the reason you weren't wanting see me after and know about me.. may I please have your forgiveness I realize I did wrong and never meant to hurt you or loose you as a friend, because you were very good friend spiritually. P.S. Sorry that happened long this letter, just wanted to hear from you and need much of your advice on smth (it's nothing to do with money). Your answer would mean to me a lot.Thank you,
