Hello, Jeffrey! How are you? I have wanted to write you a lot of the time, since the day, when I bought t-shirt with cartoon pigs, it was in May, I believe. And it is my favorite one right now. When I am wearing it, I always remember your words about both of us, once you told me - you are a pig, as I am. It was really funny then.

So, I also want to tell you, that I am so grateful to you for you made me pass Toefl better and better. Recently, I have moved to Germany, because of my dressage sport ambitions. Meanwhile, I was understanding that if my sport plans might be not enough successful, I could not afford to myself to waste the whole year. Therefore, I decided to enter in university there, and, of course, it was necessary for entering to have English certificate, and my last toefl score was 92 due to you. Thank you very much. Because of it, I gathered my documents fast, and I was accepted in university of Bremen. I know, that maybe this is not the best place for masters program, but anyway, it is better than university in Russia. Eventually, I would try to make the career in horse riding and maybe to develop it in a business after and to have the Masters diploma at the same time.

I will be the happiest girl in the world if i hear about you some news. Are you satisfied about [REDACTED]? I was happy to see her in Barcelona, she told me that she do so appreciate your help, and she hopes, that she could do your life a bit easier and to be useful to you.

12:46:11 am

I also wanted to tell you that maybe I am a lucky girl and you will be in Paris in the end of September, because I will be there since 23 of September till 27 of September, and I, finally, could see you!

12:46:20 am

Hope you are doing well. Big hugs. I look forward to receive a few lines from you.

Excuse me, if you will always pull blanked only on your side, you would never understand happiness of friendship and relationship. You could not say you was silly, you must do this. Communication relies on both opinions, not only Yours
