How about these general points/outline in an email

1. Request a check in mtg
2. Propose an agenda like I always do
3. Last paragraph
 - ... gratitude for 15 years
 - ... super gratitude for last 4 months to reboot
 - ... would like to move into my next phase and need his help

03:46:27 am

The problem is that I don't know what to ask for ---

- ? Invest in a business
- ? Invest in an idea

The barriers that Larry has made clear:

1. He can't help me publicly
2. I can't stick around
3. I can't run any of his "family" organizations or be in a leadership role in anything "family" including all the old current and new. Almost everything is family.
4. He doesn't want anything public.

I'm on a red eye to NYC tonight to attend an award dinner for my rockefeller fellowship but then come right back to seattle for McKinsey stuff Friday at c3. Id love to at least send a benign but clear note before Friday when I am there.

Hope you are enjoying Paris. Sounds like a mess in Florida and the Virgin Islands - hope everything ok there
