How are you spending your time

03:36:20 am

oo

Did you forget that I am an endovascular neurosurgeon? Every day. 24/7.

03:36:46 am

My fellowship probably over in a year or so.

03:37:07 am

It's hard.

03:37:09 am

I found funding to do some mitochondrial experiments and will do w partners st Harvard and UVA. We will test autologous mitochondrial transplant post stroke in rats

03:38:49 am

We got conformation and approval from the FDA that we are an exception to regulatory bc they are autologous

03:39:25 am

And in my spare moments I'm advising the rockefeller Board in life sciences (they made me a david rockefeller fellow as you know)

03:40:11 am

They offered Me to take over the thrombectomy Service (chief of stroke endovascular neurosurgery) when I'm done w fellowship if I want it

03:41:49 am

Ok

03:45:32 am

oo

[REDACTED]

Not a lot of options. The women's movement is fake.

03:45:57 am

I haven't really seen a woman if true substance doing any job I'd want to do?

Brain surgery pretty cool and I stay so busy i forget what I'm missing elsewhere.

I'd love to do more on the science and discovery side but no idea how or where.

Maybe something will emerge.

03:47:20 am

Any suggestions?
